

Indiana Family and Consumer Sciences at the Crossroads:
Shaping Our Sustainable Future
INAFCS State Conference, September 23-25, 2009
Adam's Mark Indianapolis Airport Hotel
2544 Executive Drive, Indianapolis, Indiana

Go to www.inafcs.org for registration form and information

CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR RESEARCH REPORTS AND CREATIVE PROJECTS

The 2009 INAFCS Annual Meeting will be held September 23-25, at the Adam's Mark Wyndham Hotel in Indianapolis. Research reports and creative projects will be presented on September 24. If you are interested or know of someone (e.g. student) who is interested in presenting their research/creative endeavors in any of the Family and Consumer Sciences, please use the following guidelines to submit abstracts. Time and location of presentations will be included with notification of acceptance of abstracts.

Researchers, scholars, practitioners, INAFCS Members:

Have you taken classes/workshops where you did research/created projects?
Do you have students who have done special projects?
Have you done research on your own since the last INAFCS?
There is time to do a project between now and the deadline - go for it!

Let's go for it and have an exciting array of poster presentations.

GUIDELINES FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

1. Type single spaced on 8-1/2" x 11" white paper. Leave one inch margins on each of the four sides. Font size no smaller than 12. Do not exceed one page.
2. Center on the a) first line - title of the presentation, b) second line - name of the author/s. Place an asterisk (*) following the name of the presenting authors and c) third line - name of the author/s institution.
3. Abstract should encompass a) objective/s, b) methods, c) results and d) implications.
4. One copy of the abstract with name/s of author/s and institution/s.
5. Two copies of the abstract without author/s and institution/s for blind review.
6. At least one presenting author must be a member of INAFCS.
7. Presenters must register for the conference. Names of authors who are not registered will not be listed as presenters.

For consideration, abstracts must be received at the following address or electronically received no later than September 5, 2009.

Cynthia K. Miller, Research Chair INAFCS
AT 150, Family and Consumer Sciences
Ball State University
Muncie, Indiana 47306
Tel: (765) 285-5942 or 5931
E-Mail: ckmiller@bsu.edu